Dear Sir:

As per your telephone request, I am enclosing the application blank of the American Numismatic Association. Besides the Numismatist, published by this organization, there is a trade journal which is equally good. This is the Coin Collectors Journal, published by the Scott Stamp & Coin Co., 1 W. 47th St., NYC, for $1.00 a year, and is also a monthly publication. I would recommend that you subscribe for both.

Our organization publishes monographs on special subjedts, now and then. We have a large, extensive Library and a Museum of coins. I am also enclosing an application blank to our Society. If you care to avail yourself of membership with us, we would like two business references.

Very truly yours,

Curator
